

Admissions & Exclusion Policy To Include EYFS

St Martin's Preparatory School

1. Overview

The School is an independent co-educational day school for students between the ages of 3 and 11.

The school has a one form entry system with ten classes comprising of Nursery, Kindergarten, Upper Kindergarten, and Reception to Year Six inclusive.

2. Admission Arrangements

The main point of admission to the school is into the Nursery class.

The school is non-selective and there is no entrance examination. Places are offered following a visit to the school and a meeting with the Head.

If spaces are currently unavailable, upon receipt of the application/registration form and payment of the registration fee, the student's name will be placed on the waiting list for entry into the correct year.

The student's name may be removed from the list at any time on the request of the parents.

3. Fixed Term/Permanent Exclusion

The school seeks to provide a disciplined and ordered family community in which education and learning can flourish. When accepting a place, parents agree that their son or daughter should be subject at all times to the School Rules and Regulations in force.

The School will make clear the standards of behaviour and commitment that it expects from students. It will encourage students to adopt positive attitudes and values such as consideration, honesty and respect for others. It will acknowledge and praise students when they reach these standards.

Any breach of good manners or good sense whether at school, on journeys to and from school, at events organised by the school or when representing the school is a breach of School Rules. High standards of behaviour are expected at all times and bullying in any form is unacceptable.

The School's Terms and Conditions confer upon the Head the power to impose the sanction of suspension or expulsion on any pupil for any cause which they consider adequate.

Suspension may be ordered if a pupil persists in misdemeanours after warnings or is involved in bullying, theft, lying, bringing prohibited articles or substances to School, repeated truancy from lessons or other serious wrong-doing. This gives the pupil a chance to consider, if possible with the help of discussions at home, the possibility that expulsion may subsequently be ordered unless conduct improves.

Expulsion may be ordered in certain circumstances, normally following suspension except in cases of serious misconduct. If this sanction is being considered, both the student and parents will normally be invited to a meeting with the Head. Parents may in some cases be offered the opportunity to withdraw the student. In other cases the Head may expel the student forthwith. The appropriate procedure to be adopted in any case is entirely at the discretion of the Head.

Parents should be informed that it is now a criminal offence punishable by fixed penalty fine or prosecution of the parents if a student is seen in a public place during normal school hours without reasonable justification, during the first five days of exclusion from state school. Students excluded from an independent school may be apprehended, as it would not be evident to a police officer that the student is not from a state school.
